Hi Coasters

After a decade of organising our own ticket sales for our Cabarets we have had to bow to the inevitable and pass the job over to Coastlands Service Desk.

Over the years we have had staunch support in our ticketing department from people like Howard Clements, John Sargent, Tony Lloyd and most particularly from Diane Bain but, now that Diane and Peter are temporary Ozzies, we just can't replace her.

So please note that as from Saturday 1st May, tickets for our next show, Land of Make Believe, will be on sale though TicketDirect at Coastlands Service Desk. See the show flyer in this newsletter.

For those of you who have been used to phoning in for tickets I have to say that visiting the desk is a better option. Phoning in a ticket order may involve an additional charge of $3 for the transaction.

We are confident that the change of system will in no dilute the sense of enjoyment you will get from seeing Graham Stevens' latest feast of fun and fantasy.

Keep in touch

Derek

LAND OF MAKE BELIEVE

I dropped in to catch part of a rehearsal last weekend and I have to say it is sounding great. Graham has a habit of assembling a fairly large cast in his shows and the benefit comes through when you hear them all getting it together in the full cast songs. It'll blow your socks off.

As mentioned above tickets will be on sale as from Saturday at Coastlands Customer Service Desk so get down there to make sure you don't miss out on this very real "make believe" experience.

Last Night of The Proms

Lesley is quietly working away putting all the large and small details together to make this years Proms the best yet. There is just one little area you can help with. Our last newsletter carried Lesley's call for a number of Coasters to make up a choir. Apparently the call was heard by a goodly number of ladies but fell mainly on deaf male ears.

Gentlemen, a lady needs your help. Surely there are enough of us about prepared to respond to that need. If you think you have what it takes, give Lesley a call on 902 2894.

Kiss The Blarney Some More

Jo Sharp's previous invitation to us to visit Erin's Isle two year's ago with Kiss The Blarney left her with a whole lot of material she didn't get time to use. So she is taking us back there with this sequel. Watch this space for announcements about auditions in a few weeks time.

Reflections – Thirty Years of Coasters

At the moment the only update I can give you on our 30th Anniversary show is that it has a name. Otherwise it is still very much a work in progress.

And finally

If you saw Miss Saigon in Wellington recently you will have been impressed at the quality and sheer drama of this great musical. Brenda and I saw it for the third time, the previous two having been in Australia with international casts. The Wellington production was in every respect as good as or better than those we had seen before. And to watch our own "Immediate Past Vice President", Nick Swan, in his first major production in the Capital just added to the tremendous enjoyment. Well done, Nick. Congratulations on a fine performance.
